Customers' Corner

Question: Does your A & P give you good food at low prices?
Answer: Yes. That is why millions of American families do all their food shopping at A & P.

Question: Is A & P a monopoly?
Answer: No. We do not own a small share of the nation's food business... a small share that we did 10 years ago.

Question: Does A & P drive competitors out of business?
Answer: No. We have more competitors today than we had 10 years ago and many of our good competitors have publicly acknowledged their willingness and ability to compete with us.

Why, then, do the anti-trust lawyers want to put your A & P out of business?

Seaside Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

The hobgoblins have gone back to wherever hobgoblins go, the witches have taken their brooms and flown away until next year, and all other characters have folded up their costumes and silently stolen away but the many parties and celebrations will be remembered for some time. The treats were plentiful so the tricks were few.

Among the adult parties, Scanlon's masquerade brought out many funny costumes. It was held Saturday night at their home on Doris Way. There were games such as "Charades" and "Pin the Tail on the Donkey."

Carl and Marie Larkins were dressed as small children, Bob Cotton dressed the girls by coming in twice, in two different costumes, once as an old Indian then again as a glamorous blonde, Byron "Father" Johnson as a South Sea Islander of the fair sex, complete with all accessories, and Dorothy Johnson as a shy little girl. Russell and Mary Lou Hopkins dressed as red devils, Barbara Cotton and Fay Scanlon came as the "False Twins." Bill Scanlon came as "Peg Leg Scanlon." Marge and Mylo Markens came dressed as farmer boy and glamorous girl, respectively. Cliff Lowery made a handsome Indian, Mabel Thompson was Mortimer Snerd, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tutt made cute Gerber Twins. Everyone had a grand time, the cold cuts and baked ham completed the evening.

The Girl Scout troop enjoyed a party Halloween evening, they each invited a friend dressed in costume. The Marulas were kind enough to allow them use of their new garage where they played games and danced for apples. Recorded music was provided for dancing and prizes were given for the funniest, most original, and prettiest costumes.

Many parties were held in the school. The Room Mothers provided the refreshments such as apples made to look like faces, sandwiches in the shape of pumpkins, also cookies, cupcakes, cider, pop and punch.

The first adult Brownie training class last Friday was well attended. It was held in the WALTERA Recreation Hall from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. Nostalgic lunches were brought and coffee served. Those from Seaside Ranchos attending, were "Winnie" Mewborn, Florence Wheeler, Margaret Roettger, Dorothy Johnson, and Agnes Wilshire. There were many more from Gardena and WALTERA. Anyone interested in these classes, please call me.

Mrs. Thelma Shockey entertained a small group of women last Friday afternoon. They plan to do their Christmas sewing by meeting once a week in different homes in their neighborhood. Cookies and coffee were served and those enjoying the afternoon were, Mrs. Beatrice Merola, Mrs. Betty Lou Sparks, Mrs. Margaret Roettger, Mrs. Virginia Knouse, Mrs. Winnie Mewborn and yours truly.

The Los Angeles Council of the Girl Scouts met last Tuesday at May Co. Crenshaw. This meeting consisted of Neighborhood, District, and Section chairmen. The president is Mrs. Morgan Maree. The agenda is as follows: Delegates to the National Convention in Milwaukee were introduced. Camping reports were given. In our section, the camping average jumped from 6 per cent last year to 31 per cent this year.

A new plan has been adopted to help the girls save for their camping by the use of stamps, denomination of which will be in books which when filled will be worth $5. This year the plan will be good only for Ostio and Mariners camp. (Our girls are hoping to go to Catalina again this year.)

The financial report was then presented with plans for the next cookie sale which will be February 11 to 25.

Plans are already on the way for the May Co. Birthday party on March 11.

Don't forget to order your Christmas cards, wrappings, etc. Call Mrs. Canty FR 2-6102 or call me FR 4-3722.

The Girl Scout Mothers Club is sponsoring this and some of the money will go toward purchases for our adopted family. With Thanksgiving and Christmas coming up, there will be many of their needs we can fill. Our girls have become quite enthused over this project and are planning at the present on their Thanksgiving basket. The family needs a chest of drawers so if you have one you're not using and would like to give it to this very deserving family, please let me know.

So—you don't like the way your child is being taught in today's schools? Tonight you can, at your regular PTA meeting, attend a forum on this subject. Panel personnel will be Miss Corinne Seeds, U.C.L.A.; Walter Rehboldt, Torrance School District; Jack Rouman, psychologist, Torrance School District. The moderator will be Earl Eckert, principal of Seaside School. By attending this meeting many of your problems, discussed among small groups of people who are not authorities on the subject, can be brought to light giving all a clearer understanding of the situation.

The meeting is being held close to your homes enabling more people to attend—St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach, 8 p.m. There will be music by "Los Cancioneros" a Hollywood Riviera mixed choral society. Committees featured will be Parent Education, Music, Magazine, and Legislation.

Hostesses will be the sixth and seventh year mothers.

Cub Scouts Hold Annual Costume Party Saturday

The ghosts walked and so did the old devil himself, oversized animals, old ladies, fat men, gay señoritas and mechanized men on Friday night at the Kiwanis Scout hall.

The event was the annual Cub Scout party sponsored by Lomita Pack 218 and attended by all Cub Scouts of the Pack and their families.

Tall corn stalks, pumpkins and other decorations, all suggestive of the Halloween season were arranged about the hall and the fireplace for the party which began with a grand march for the costumed children and was climaxed with the serving of delicious refreshments of ice cream, gaily-decorated homemade cakes, punch and coffee.

Carl Westfall, cubmaster, was assisted by Bill Beane, former cubmaster, in directing a succession of games planned for the amusement of everyone to include all children even the tiniest and the moms and dads.

Judges were Dr. B. Johnson, Reemstma, Clyde Bernhardt, James Phillip, Jack Merbach and Mrs. Irene Howe.

Prizes for the best costumes and other contests went to Larry McKunath, Mark and Bill Milburn, Mickey Andrade, Bobby Carpenter, Ronald McPeak, Tommy Sherry, Tommy Chapman, Joe Flagg, David Hawks, Frances McCay, Ronnie Westfall, Leona Cornelsen, Jim Stanford, Gloria Ickes, James Jones, Dick Westfall, and Mrs. Irene McPeak.

Mrs. Russell Bushnell and Mrs. Bill Tregarthen were hostesses and Den Mothers and the Scout committee were responsible for the success of the party.
